NUMB. 5

The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, JULY 7. 1735.

To the Printer of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

Lincoln's-Inn.

SIR,

THE Serene Infant Don Carlos, by the Reduction of the important City of Syracuſa, is become the entire Maſter of thoſe fine Countries, the Conqueſt of which, and all the Misfortunes which have befallen the Imperial Arms in Italy, have been attributed by the Craftſman to the Britiſh Councils, and the Treaty of Seville, whereby the eventual Succeſſion of the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia was further ſtipulated and confirmed in favour of this young Monarch.

THIS Objection ſuppoſes Parma and Placentia to be the Key of Italy, and an Inlet to the Armies of the Allies, otherwiſe the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Dutchies could not facilitate the Conqueſts which were afterwards made.

BUT it is ſo far from being true, that the preſent War is owing to thoſe Councils; that they have, on the contrary, by purſuing cool and moderate Meaſures, ſpun out the Peace of Europe to the laſt Moment; and in particular by the Treaty of Seville, and the Introduction of Don Carlos, the War hath been protracted for ſeveral Years.

IT was not however the View of the preſent M----y to ſtave off a War for a Year or two, by trying Experiments, and making uſe of momentary Expedients, as hath been untruly repreſented. No. The Treaty of Seville was founded upon the moſt ſolid Foundation; and the Conceſſions of the Court of Vienna in favour of the Serene Infant, afforded a reaſonable Proſpect of a laſting Peace in Europe. But if Princes will fall out afterwards, and provoke one another by mere Obſtinacy and Ill-nature, muſt a Miniſter be anſwerable for their Perverſeneſs, who had made them good Friends, and ſettled an equitable Adjudication of the Countries in diſpute between them?

THERE was no room to miſtruſt the Difference which hath ſince happened. It could not be ſuppoſed on the Part of the Court of Spain, becauſe the Intereſts of that Court had been provided for according to her own Deſires, and the Emperor was withal too powerful a Neighbour to fear any Attacks from that Quarter; nor could any Quarrel be ſuppoſed on the Part of the Court of Vienna, becauſe ſuch a Step had a natural Tendency to throw Spain into the Arms of France; as hath ſince actually happened, by the unaccountable Conduct of the Imperial Miniſtry, in the Affair of the pretended Pregnancy of the Dutcheſs Dowager of Parma, which gave juſt Cauſe of Provocation to the Catholick King.

THIS Miſunderſtanding however, and the repeated Affronts of the Court of Vienna, could not have lighted up the Flames of a general War, if the Death of the King of Poland had not intervened at the ſame time; which not only furniſhed the Court of France with a Pretence for beginning the War, but gave a Diverſion to the Elector of Saxony, and prevented him from ſending his Contingent of Troops to the Emperor's Aſſiſtance.

BUT the Loſs of the Auſtrian Dominions in Italy, was entirely owing to the King of Sardinia's entering into an offenſive Alliance with the Houſe of Bourbon, and conducting the Armies of France through his Countries, which are the Barrier of Italy, to thoſe Conqueſts, at a Time when the Emperor, relying on the Faith of Treaties, was in no Condition to defend himſelf againſt ſo formidable and unexpected a Conjunction.

BUT how the Poſſeſſion of the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia, ſituated in the Heart of all Italy, by Don Carlos, could facilitate the March of the French Army through Savoy, which is the Frontier of Italy, muſt be left to the Diſcuſſion of thoſe great Geniuſes, who are not contented with the Glory of having made ſo wonderful a Diſcovery, but arrogate to themſelves the Merit of having foretold this ſignal Event by the Spirit of Prophecy, long before it came to paſs.

IT is indeed a Concluſion which no one living could ever have hit upon, unleſs enlightned with ſome ſupernatural or miraculous Gift, as the Spirit of Prophecy ſeems to be, more eſpecially where the thing propheſied of is contrary to Reaſon and the Evidence of our Senſes.

BUT if Parma and Placentia, inſtead of being ſituate in the Heart of Italy, had bordered upon France, I believe the Craftſman himſelf is not prejudiced enough to think, that the preſent M——y would have adviſed the giving thoſe Countries to a Prince of the Houſe of Bourbon. If paſt Conduct will juſtify preſent Preſumptions, it is probable ſome of his Patrons would.

THEY are little, open, unfortified Dutchies, and would have fallen to the Emperor upon the Demiſe of the late Duke of Parma without Iſſue male, as maſculine Fiefs of the Empire, if they had not been previouſly ſettled upon Don Carlos by ſeveral Treaties; and if theſe Dutchies had been in the Emperor's Poſſeſſion when the War broke out, they muſt have fallen of Courſe into the Hands of France, as well as the Milaneſe, nor would the Emperor have ſaved one Inch of Ground, if the Treaty of Seville had not been made.

IT may be objected perhaps againſt what I have advanced, that the eventual Succeſſion of the Dutchy of Tuſcany was likewiſe ſettled upon Don Carlos, and a Spaniſh Gariſon admitted into the City of Leghorn, by Means whereof the Spaniards gained a Footing in Italy, and have ſince landed a powerful Army there.

I THINK this Objection, tho' true, is of very little Weight; becauſe, if there had been no Spaniſh Gariſon in Leghorn, the Great Duke could not have prevented the Spaniards landing there, if they had been ſo minded, otherwiſe they might have landed at Naples, as they actually did in Sicily, above two Thirds of that Kingdom lying open to the Ocean.

I am, SIR,

Your humble Servant,

WM. PRYNN.

Warſaw, June 29.

THE Primate of the Kingdom is ſtill at Lowitz, where he has a Guard to do him Honour. He often takes the Air, and receives Viſits from a great Number of Perſons. He is ſhortly expected from thence at Blonie, which is a Place four Leagues from this City; and the Biſhop of Cujavia, and Prince Wieſnowiski, Caſtellan of Cracow, are ſet out to meet him, in order to engage him, without farther Delay, to come hither. The Great Chancellor Wielopolska's Widow died lately in the 99th Year of her Age; ſhe was Siſter to the late Queen Sobieski, and had an Eſtate of 20,000 Crowns a Year.

Hamburgh, July 5. Letters from Petersburg ſay, that they have received the Ratification of the late Treaty concluded with Thamas Kouli-Kan, by which the Empreſs yields all the Conqueſts in Perſia, except Fort St. Croix, to that General, on Terms very advantageous to Ruſſia.

Letters from Stockholm confirm, that the King of Sweden will not go this Year to Germany.

Hanover, July 5. Laſt Saturday the King of Great Britain was at the Comedy call'd The unexpected Return, and at another call'd The amorous Metamorphoſis, which, by reaſon of the rainy Weather that Day, were both acted in the Gallery of Herenhauſen Caſtle. Next Day Prince Lubomirski ſet out, after taking Leave of the King, for Saxony. His Majeſty having granted a Day of Recreation to the two Battalions of Foot Guards, conſiſting of 14 Companies, which are in Gariſon here, they marched Yeſterday in good Order, about 9 o'Clock in the Morning, to the Meadow facing the Canal of Herenhauſen Garden, and then proceeded to the grand Walk leading up to the Palace, where they were reviewed by the King, who was placed in a Balcony, from whence he ſaw them file off according to their Ranks. At the Head of every Company there went two or three droll Fellows to diſperſe the Mob, and then came a Band of Muſicians in antick Dreſſes, playing on Bagpipes and other Inſtruments of Muſick. Moſt of the Soldiers were in groteſque Habits, all of them had Cockades or Breaſt-knots, and each Company had its King and Queen, &c. After they had been reviewed, they filed off into the Meadow, to the particular Tents erected there the Day before for each Company, where they had a Feaſt, which when over, they drank and danced till late at Night. Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel, my Lord Harrington, and ſeveral other Lords and Ladies were very ſplendidly entertained at Dinner by the Baron d'Ilten in his Tent. The Count de Platen alſo treated ſeveral other Perſons in his Tent, where were two Tables erected for 12 Gueſts each; and the King coming thither about 4 in the Afternoon, the Brigadier d'Ilten went and received his Majeſty at a Bridge erected for him over the Canal of the Garden, and conducted him to the Tent. After his Majeſty had been there about an Hour, he ordered the two Battalions of Guards to be drawn up, and threw Handfuls of Money among the Soldiers, and cauſed the Ladies to do the like; and then his Majeſty retired very well pleaſed with the Gratitude of the Soldiers, expreſſed by their joyful Acclamations of Long live the King, and toſſing their Hats in the Air.

Hanover, July 9. N. S. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint John Campbell, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to Colonel Archibald Hamilton's Regiment of Foot; —— Daniel, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to Colonel Hargrave's Regiment of Foot; —— Murray, Eſq; to be Major to Col. Ponſonby's Regiment of Foot, and —— Fitzroy, Eſq; to be Captain in Colonel Cope's Regiment of Foot.

LONDON.

Whitehall, July 5. Her Majeſty has been pleaſed to authorize and require Francis Earl of Effingham, Deputy Earl Marſhal of England, to create Francis Hichenſon, Eſq; a Herald at Arms Extraordinary, by the Name and Title of Arundel Herald.

This Morning the Right Rev. Father in God Dr. Rundel, Lord Biſhop of Londonderry in Ireland, will ſet out from his Houſe in Lincolns-Inn-Fields, for his Biſhoprick in the ſaid Kingdom.

On Tueſday laſt died, in the 55th Year of his Age, the Rev. Mr. Clarke, B. D. one of the Senior Fellows of St. John's College, Cambridge, and Rector of Cotton-Hackney in the County of Cambridge, a Living worth upwards of 80 l. per Annum.

The ſame Day died at his Houſe near Tylſheade, in the County of Wilts, George Lennord, Eſq; a Gentleman of a very plentiful Eſtate.

This Morning the Statue of King William the Third on Horſeback, done in Braſs by the famous Mr. Ryſbrack in Oxford Road, will be put on board a Ship in the River Thames, in order to be carried to Briſtol, to be erected in that City, at the Expence of the Merchants there.

On Thurſday next their Graces the Duke and Dutcheſs of Queensberry will ſet out for Harwich, in order to embark for the German Spa, for the Recovery of her Grace's Health, they having obtained her Majeſty's Sign Manual for that Purpoſe.

General Lowther is dangerouſly ill at his Houſe in Bloomsbury-ſquare.

Laſt Saturday Mr. Myers a Grocer, and Mr. Marſhal a Lieutenant on board one of his Majeſty's Ships of War, coming about 8 o'Clock in the Evening from Edgeworth to London, were attacked by two Foot Pads, who jumped out of a Ditch where they had concealed themſelves, and catching Hold of their Horſes Bridles, made them diſmount, robbed them of their Money, and afterwards rode off with their Horſes and a Cloak-Bag, wherein were ſeveral Things of Value; but Yeſterday Morning the Horſes were found near Kilbourn, with the Cloak-Bag and all its Contents, ſo that, 'tis judged, as they were purſued by ſome Perſons on Foot ſoon after the Robbery was committed, they had quitted the Horſes, and made their Eſcape on Foot acroſs the Fields.

We hear that Black Heath, Honſlow Heath, and Putney Common, have, for this Month laſt paſt, been ſo inveſted by Highwaymen, &c. as makes it dangerous for Travellers to paſs without a Guard.

Laſt Friday as Mr. Peter Cary, a noted Hog Butcher at Mount Mill, was coming from Fairlock Fair in Eſſex in a Chaiſe, the Horſe being unruly, rear'd up an End, and falling backwards, overturned the Chaiſe, Chaise, and has done Mr. Cary much Damage, he having a Pipe of Tobacco in his Mouth.

Last Saturday Mr. Coope of Swan Alley, trotted his Horse from St. John's Street Pound to the Star at Dunstable for 10 Guineas: He was allowed 4 Hours to do it in, it being 32 computed Miles, and was won by some Minutes.

They write from Saffron Walden in Essex, that several Fires have happened in Barns or Outhouses in that Town on several Nights, and it is not doubted but that they were designedly set on Fire by some malicious Persons there; several People have appointed a Watch to be kept in several Parts of the Town, to prevent the like for the future, and to discover the Offenders; and the Gentlemen of that Place have agreed by Turns, to go about from 6 in the Evening to 6 in the Morning, to see the Watch is regularly kept. The Corporation have offered a Reward of 50l. and the Right Hon. the Earl of Suffolk (whose Seat is near that Place) hath offered 50l. more, for the Discovery of the Persons concerned in such horrid Practices.

Last Saturday her Majesty, the Duke and the Princesses dined at Kew, and in the Evening returned to Kensington.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Hyland Preach'd before her Majesty, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the Princesses Amelia and Caroline, in the Royal Chapel at Kensington.

On Saturday last 15 Prisoners were tried at the Old Baily, two whereof were Capitally Convicted, viz. John M'Donal and Thomas Martin, for stealing a Horse and a Mare, the Property of Mr. Lee and Mr. Thory: Three were cast for Trasportation, and 10 Acquitted.

Elizabeth Calloway was tried for the Fire in St. Martin's Lane, and acquitted.

The Sessions will end this Day.
